ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

With a deep sense of gratitude, I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to my revered supervisor, Dr. Harish Sharma, Reader, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for his excellent spirit, constant encouragement and illustrative guidance from the beginning to the completion of this work. His deep insight into the problem with an indefatigable fact finding zeal not only made it possible for me to benefit from his helpful criticism, but also aroused in me a habit of clear thinking as a researcher. In fact, the whole of this thesis bears imprints of his balanced criticism and scholarly approach.

I am thankful to my beloved mother Mae Chee Boonyen Kettate, who constantly encouraged me and remained a source of inspiration now and ever before throughout my academic life.

I owe my indebtedness to my brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Paiboon Anurit for supporting me in all respect during the course of my study.

Besides, I owe my debts to my dear friends Miss Paiboon Damri, Miss Ratana Sakorn, Mr. Christopher Ejekwu, Mr. Phuritsabam Birmani Singh, Mr. Chumporn Mankhong, Mr. and Mrs. Sukit-Ubon Suwannachairop, Mr. Dhirendra Sood and his family and other numerous distinguished friends, who contributed directly or indirectly in making my work a success, by providing valuable information or comments. Finally, a special thanks to Mr. Ujagar Singh who did the typing work for me.

Panjab University, Chandigarh.
June 20, 1987.

( Boonyong Kettate )