Acknowledgements

Through the centuries mankind has humbly acknowledged the kindness and guidance of the Guru and it is the guiding hand of my Guru, Dr. Belu Maheshwari, that has led me to my destination. I thank my guide and mentor for her constant advice, counsel and love. She helped me along gently towards discovering within me the spirit and power to accomplish this challenging piece of research work in the two states of Manipur and Haryana.

I also thank Dr. Surinder Singh, Head of the Department of History, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for his constant support and insights.

I would like to extend my humble thanks to my uncles, Nilamani and Nityai. The constant support of my sisters, Dayabati, Bimolata, Priya, Prativa and Neelima. I cannot forget all the help given to me by my brothers Dr. R.K. Brojen, Romen, Arun Kumar and Kennedy as well as his wife. I most humbly thank my brother, Inaoba, Inaobi and Birla for lending me all possible support and help required for completing this thesis. I take this opportunity to thank my friends, Dr. P.R. Chauhan, Sanjay Kohli, Shubhakanta, Ghanashyam, Nando, Dilsipkumar, Okendro, Bir Singh Yadav, Pratima, Naba and my juniors Romesh, Gopeshwar, Sanamacha, Ranbir, Pratap.

It is to my parents that I owe my greatest debt of gratitude for believing in me and helping me attain my dreams. I would also like to thank my fiancée, Mercy Kamei for her patience and sympathy. It is to the family of Achon Kom in Manipur, and family of Prabha in Haryana and Premji and his family that I submit my gratitude for their wonderful support through my field work.

Above all I thank the people of Manipur and Haryana for their many kindnesses and understanding in helping me attain the objectives that I set myself for the successful completion of this piece of research work.

Dr. Premji Singh
22/02/07