I, with sincere gratitude and overwhelming indebtedness, wish to extend my thanks to my esteemed teacher and advisor Dr. Vineet Khera, Reader, Panjab University, Chandigarh, whose dexterous guidance, valuable suggestions, constructive criticism and above all the ever encouraging attitude throughout the tenure of this research assignment has enabled me to achieve this form of presentation. It was really a proud privilege and cherishing experience to work under her benevolent guidance.

I shall ever remain grateful to my honourable teacher, guide and sincere friend Dr. Sunil Dutt, Lecturer, Technical Teacher Training Institute, Chandigarh who triggered an urge in me to take this study. His kind and able supervision has illuminated some of dark recesses of my mind with his clear thinking, stimulating criticism and excellent spirit right from the beginning of this research, to its write up and completion. I am beholden to his family for always accommodating me. The valuable contribution and guidance given by Dr. (Mrs.) Sucheta Dutt, paved a long way in the completion of present investigation.

I, express my hearty thanks to Dr. D.P. Asija, Principal, Sohan Lal DAV College of Education, Ambala City for providing me an access to all the facilities and giving me invaluable suggestions, continuous encouragement throughout this research work.

I have had the honour of having the learned and expert guidance of my colleague, Dr. S.S. Brar. His great sincerity and incessant efforts, boundless knowledge of the subject and continuous interest is beyond praise.

I, express my sincere gratitude to Heads of various schools, and the students for their gracious co-operation and for every possible help rendered to me in carrying out the present study.

I simply fumble for words to express my heartfelt gratitude to
Sh. Kuldeep Chandhok. His single-minded commitment, whole-hearted support, laborious efforts and a keen interest in typing has given my hand written research work a shape of beauty and ultimate perfection.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not express my sense to gratitude to my revered parents and my brother Manish who have been a beacon of light to me and boost my morale through out the course of investigation.

In the last, but not the least I am immensely indebted to my husband Sh. Ajesh Aggarwal for his sustained inspiration and encouragement through out the course of this investigation. His helpful attitude and affectionate behaviour had supported me in innumerable ways in accomplishing this task.

Once again, I would like to thank all concerned who helped me in the successful completion of my research work.

CHANDIGARH

May, 1995

( SUSHMA GUPTA )