ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

"Happiness cannot be expressed by words and help taken cannot be left thanking.
I would like to thank all of them who are a part of my life and work". So, with reverence and honour, I acknowledge all those, whose guidance and encouragement has made it successful in winding up this opus.

My first and foremost thanks goes to my beloved guide Dr. M.B. Shivanna, Reader, Department of Applied Botany, Kuvempu University, for his invaluable guidance, under whose stewardship, I was very fortunate to conduct research work on plant pathology of medicinal plants. He is the one, who initiated, taught and mended my research aptitude towards phytopathology and for him the words of praise dry up.

My sincere thanks to the Prof. M. Krishnappa, Chairman, Dr.S.R. Krishnamurthy, Dr. Y.L. Krishnamurthy, Dr. Rajanaika and Dr. S.G. Malammanavar and all the other faculty members and non-teaching staff members of the Department of Applied Botany and the faculty of other Departments of Biosciences for their co-operation and suggestions during the course of my work.

I wish to thank Forest Department Officials, Bhadra Wild Life Sanctuary for the permission granted to me to carry out the work and also for logistic support.

I put on record my heartful thanks to my fellows Mr. Mallikarjuna Swamy, G.E., Mr. Deepak, R., Mrs. Vasantha Kumari, Mr. Rajkumar, Mr. Parashuram, Ms. Asha and
Dr. B.H. Ramesh and all the other research scholars of the Department of Applied Botany and other sister Departments of Biosciences for their whole hearted co-operation throughout my study. Their help in field and laboratory is greatly acknowledged.

My heartful thanks to the library authorities of Kuvempu University, GKV and IISc, Bangalore, Swaminathan Research Foundation, Chennai.
I wish to express my thanks to Dr. J. Narayana, Reader, Department of Environmental Science for spectral studies and I also wish to thank Mr. Gurushankar, Research Scholar, Department of Applied Zoology, who helped incredibly in providing statistical data.

I am grateful to all my friends who directly or indirectly helped me in completion of this work.

I am greatly indebted to my parents who have been nurturing all my talents with me through their hope and wishes. Their immense confidence in me has made me to perform better day by day and every step of the present study without them would have been impossible to windup the onerous task.

I thank my father-in-law, mother-in-law, sister-in-law for all the help and co-operation they have showered on me.

At this moment, I never tend to forget those, who are very near and dear to me, my brothers, sisters-in-law and all my aunts, uncles and cousins for their tolerance, constant encouragement and moral support throughout the study.

I deem it my privilege to express my deep sense of gratitude and sincere thanks to my sister, brother-in-law and their family for their support.

Finally, my special thanks to my husband Mr. Sridhar Shivaramu, who was always the tremendous source of inspiration and of invaluable help in channeling my efforts in the right direction and successful completion of my work.

I register my thanks to Mr. Dinesh and Ms. Sudha (S.G.S. computer center), they evinced keen interest to get the thesis typed in time.

Lastly, my sincere thanks are also due to all those who have helped me directly or indirectly in the successful completion of my work.
