ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It gives me immense pleasure to thank one and all, who inspired, guided and helped me in completing this thesis.

Under the able guidance of my reverend guide, Dr. Saroj Ghosh, Professor, Department of music and Fine Arts Panjab University Chandigarh, who guided me throughout the thesis from its inception to its completion, I could carry on and complete my work. I take this opportunity to mention that without her help, this thesis would not have seen the rays of the dawn.

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to my first Guru and guide, my mother, Dr. Nalini Kaushal, without whose encouragement, help and moral support, it would have been very difficult for me to complete this thesis; to my father Sh. Prem Kaushal for his valuable help.

I also record my thanks to Dr. Gautam Vyathit for being my inspiration in the field of Folk Music.

My special thanks to Prof. R.C. Sharma, Prof. O.P. Sharma, Prof. Vikas Rana and Ankush Kumar Attri, without whose help I could not complete my research work.

I am deeply grateful to all the authors of the books which I quoted. My sincere thanks to all the folk artists, who provided me the raw material i.e. the original and tuneful melodies, enabling me to analyse the same to reach conclusions.
I would be failing in my duties if I do not express my gratitude to my husband S. Tejeshwar Singh, who has been a great moral support.

Last but not the least I would like to thank Mr. Sandeep for carrying out the typing work to my satisfaction.

Nandini Kaushal
