It gives me immense pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude to my respected supervisor, Prof. Shanti Swarup, under whose scholarly, inspiring and valuable guidance this study has been completed. His erudite scholarship helped me considerably in getting training as a researcher. It was a pleasure indeed to come up to his exacting standards of research.

I am also grateful to other members of the faculty of Political Science Department, Panjab University, particularly to Prof. M. M. Puri, Mr. J. C. Anand, Dr. S. Bhatnagar, Dr. T. R. Sharma, Dr. K. K. Pathak and Dr. P. S. Verma, for their valuable suggestions and encouragement during the course of this study.

Grateful acknowledgements are also due to the leaders and activists of the Punjab CPI who helped me in the collection of data for the present study.

I shall hardly ever be able to thank my wife, friends and well wishers, who actively helped, encouraged and inspired me to carry on this work.

My thanks are also due to Shri B. S. Kahlon who typed the manuscript meticulously at a very short notice.
