

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Harish Chandra Sharma, Professor, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for his devotion, encouragement and valuable guidance provided to me during the course of this study. Without his able supervision the work might not have been completed as well as is it now.

I am grateful to Dr. Anand Bhushan Chairman, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for providing me research facilities.

I owe a debt of thanks to Dr. Rajinder Kaur, Associate Professor, Department of Education (Correspondence Courses), Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla, for rendering me all possible help.

My profound sense of gratitude to my parents without whose struggling efforts, I should not have been able to accomplish this work.

I also give my thanks to many friends and students for their assistance in the collection of data and necessary information for this study.

I am also grateful to the members of the teaching staff of the Faculty of Education of Prince of Songkhla University, Thailand, especially to Dr. Kanit Khaimuk, Mr. Prasert Choosing, and Mr. Chanchai Armissamacharn, for their helpful suggestions and assistance during the course of this study.

Sincere thanks to Prince of Songkhla University, which provided scholarship to me for this research.

My warm thanks are extended to Dr. Tassew Zewdie, Dr. A.D. Ahluwalia, Pharmaha Konit Srithong and Miss Ariya Kuha for assistance rendered by them from time to time.

I wish to thank Mr. I.M. Soni, Reader of Mass Communication Department, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for going through the manuscript and suggesting some improvements.

Sincere thanks to sweetest wife, Mrs. Kanyarat Ouckathi and my sons, Soradhorn, Siravit Ouckathi, for giving me moral support to undertake this difficult task.

I fail to express my feelings for all those persons who have been helping me during my research work.
