APPENDIX 'F'

Teachers' Questionnaire

Dear teachers,

I am trying to have an idea of the present methods and approaches towards teaching of writing at undergraduate level, and I seek your cooperation.

I shall be grateful if you fill in this questionnaire for me.

Your name : _____________________________

The name of the college where you teach _____________________________

QUESTIONNAIRE

1. To what extent, do you think, writing is a skill which can be taught in the class room?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

2. How important do you think, writing is, for the students of Functional English?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

3. What kind of writing is required by the students of this course?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

4. Does writing have separate lessons in this course or is it integrated with other work?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

5. How much time do you allot to teaching of writing?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

6. Do your students collaborate on writing task?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
7. Do you encourage your students to revise and edit?

8. Do your students mark their own or each other's work?

9. Do you mark their assignments simply or do you give them comments and feedback?

10. What do you think is the biggest problem your students face while writing?

11. What kind of guidance do you provide to your students?

12. In your opinion, how helpful, a change in the overall approach to teaching of writing, would be, to the students at this level.

YOUR SUGGESTIONS:
I may need your help again. Please give your address below so that I may contact you.
THANK YOU

(SHIVANI)
Ph.D. Student
DEPT. OF ENGLISH
PUNJAB UNIVERSITY, CHANDIGARH.