Research is an amazing experience, which involves constant hard work. The present study was an effort that required the aid and support of many. Firstly, I feel deeply beholden to the Almighty ‘Allah’ without whose supreme power it would have not been possible to bring this dream of mine into reality.

The quintessence of my scholaristic pursuit proved both enriching and enjoyable under the aegis of professional brilliance of my benevolent mentor and guide Prof. (Dr.) Promila Pathak, Department of Botany, Panjab University, Chandigarh. I place on record with profound gratitude and sense of indebtedness, my sincerest thanks to her for having introduced me to this fascinating world of Orchids. It is through her unflinching devotions to an interest in my research work, stimulating counsel, thought provoking discussions, untiring inspiration and constructive criticism that I have been able to complete this challenging task, in due time.

My sincere thanks are also due to Dr. R. K. Bhanura, Professor, Botany Department, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for his able guidance, and valuable suggestions throughout the course of this work.

My sincere thanks are due to Prof. (Dr.) K. Kohli, Chairperson, Department of Botany, Panjab University, Chandigarh, and his predecessor Prof. I. S. Dua for providing me the requisite laboratory facilities and the timely support in the completion of the work.

It is my proud privilege to express my humble thanks to Prof. S.P. Vij, Senior NASI Scientist Platinum Jubilee Fellow whose invaluable suggestions and encouraging attitude activated me to learn a lot during my research period.

The officials at Iranian Embassy, at New Delhi, India, are profusely thanked for their kind co-operation and help whenever sought for, especially his Excellency Mr. Nabizadeh, the ambassador and Prof. M. H. Karim, Counselor & Director of Science and Education Department.

I would also like to express my deep sense of gratitude to Drs. Dor Mohammad Kordi, K. C. Mahant and Zahid Noor for their moral support and valuable suggestions during the course of present work.
The words at my command are inadequate to convey the depth of my feelings to my affectionate parents, sisters and brother for their constant moral support, who are the apostles in giving shape to my future, infusing in me the spirit to face the challenges of life, bravely.

Special thanks to Drs. Majid Momeni, Mohsen Nikbakht, Abdul minam Ali Abbas Mousavi, Reza Eghdami, Sayed Ali Hosseini Abbas Abbasi and Ranabir, for their wholehearted cooperation, encouraging attitude and immense help.

I express my special thanks to Mr. Dev Raj Rana for his kind help.

I would like to acknowledge thanks to my seniors (Drs. Lucky, Sanjay Sharma, M.M. Hussain, Jagdeep Verma, Messers Mandep K. Dhillon, Shveta Sharma) and other lab mates Ms. Rajni Negi, Mr. Vivek, Ms. Anuprabha, Ms. Kriti and Ms. Poonam) for their kind help and goodwill.

Finally, I would like to express my warm thanks to all those authors whose works have either been consulted or quoted.

Words cannot express the depth of feelings I owe to my dear wife Sharafnaz Hashemzadeh and our beloved children for their inspiration, support, patience and sacrifice. I am also indebted to my Father, mother in law and other family members especially my elder brother (Haj Abdorrahman) for their moral and financial support.
