Acknowledgements

This is to express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Dr. (Mrs.) Asha Mohan Sethi, Reader in the Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, under whose supervision, I have been able to complete the thesis. This work would not have come to its present shape without her scholarly guidance, constructive criticism, cheerful encouragement, inspiration and consolation throughout the project.

I extend my sincere regards and appreciation to the Chairpersons, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for providing me the facilities to work in the Department.

I am thankful to the Supervisory Unit, Department of Education, Ministry of Education, Thailand, for giving me opportunity to study. I am also grateful to Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India for giving me the scholarship to carry out my research work in India.

My sincere thanks are due to the Directors and Vice-directors of the respective institutions who extended their hearty co-operation in collecting data. My special thanks and gratitude are due to the Heads of the Departments and the teachers in their respective subject areas in secondary schools of the 12th Regional Education Division, Thailand, who acted as the subjects for this study. My indebtedness are due to the Government and Private school teachers in India and secondary school teachers in Thailand, who volunteered to give me the data for standardization of the Scale.

I am very grateful to Mr. C.M. Behl, the programmer of Computer Centre, Panjab University, Chandigarth, for computing the data for my study.

I express my sincere thanks to my dearest sister, Ms. Urai Chiamcharoen for her encouragement and all the help she rendered me for the successful completion of my study in India. I am also thankful to my loving brother Mr. Narong Woonceiw and my loving sister Dr.(Ms.) Wilaiporn Worajittanon who have helped me in many ways to complete my research work. My indebtedness are due to Phramaha Sahas Dumkoom who has assisted me in my work for this thesis.

My special thanks are due to Mr. Sabhapati Tiwari who meticulously and considerably typed this thesis.

Lastly, I would like to thank the editor, Mr. I.M. Soni, reader in the Department of Mass Communication, Panjab University, Chandigarth, for editing my thesis.
