Select Bibliography

PRIMARY SOURCES

Data collected through interview schedule.

Researcher’s own observations during conducting interviews of women legislators.

REPORTS AND DOCUMENTS (INTERNATIONAL)

GOVERNMENT REPORTS AND DOCUMENTS (INDIA)

Census of India, 2001, Registrar-General and Commissioner India, New Delhi.

Election Commission of Haryana Records.

Election Commission of Himachal Pradesh Records.

Election Commission of India Records.

Election Commission of Punjab Records.

National Alliance of Women, n.d, Report of the Consultation on Women’s Political Agenda for 1996 and Beyond, NAWO, New Delhi.

National Family Health Survey (NFHS-1), 1993-94 (HP Series), IIAS, Mumbai.

Proceedings of the Haryana Vidhan Sabha.

Proceedings of the Himachal Pradesh Vidhan Sabha.

Proceedings of the Punjab Vidhan Sabha.

Who’s Who – Haryana Vidhan Sabha.

Who’s Who – Lok Sabha.

Who’s Who – Punjab Vidhan Sabha.

Who’s Who – Rajya Sabha.

BOOKS

Kealey, L. and J. Sangster (ed)., 1989, Beyond The Vote: Condition of Women and Politics, University of Toronto Press, Toronto.

ARTICLES

345

Bhavni.V. and Jyothi, V., 1990 “Women Politicians and Women Entrepreneurs-Why are they Rare? An Analysis” Paper Presented to Indian Association for Women’s Studies for the 5th National Conference at Jadavpur University, Calcutta, 9-12 February.

WEBSITES

http://www.capwip.org/resources/rounaq/rounaq.html

http://www.censusindia.net

http://www.efka.org.pl/english/helpline http://www.electioncommissionofindia.nic.in.

http://www.empowering-women.com

http://www.freespeech.org/manushi/96/intvus.html

http://www.haryana-online.com/history.htm

http://www.indiawomensstst.com

http://www.ipu.org/wmn-e/world.htm

http://www.rmk.nic.in

http://www.unifem-eseasia.org/TechPapers/wleaders.htm