Acknowledgements

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my worthy and talented supervisor, Dr S.L. Sharma, Professor & Chairman, Department of Sociology, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for inducting me into the process of systematic investigation through this empirical work. He has left no stone unturned in improving the quality of my work through his constructive criticism. He has been a pillar of support, a real beacon, a great source of inspiration and encouragement to me at all stages of the completion of this dissertation. I wish I could imbibe his consummate skill of maintaining a balance between the role of a teacher and that of a friend.

I owe my special thanks to Professor V.S.D'Souza, Dr K.L. Sharma and Shri P.N.Pimpley for their precious suggestions and guidance in designing the synopsis as well as in the analysis and interpretation of the data.

My thanks are due to all the headmasters, the teachers, the students and their parents, and to the non-school-going adolescents, who were kind enough to make themselves available to me for interviews, and for readily extending their co-operation during the course of my field work.

To my friend, Shri O.P.Monga, I am grateful for reading the drafts of all the chapters and offering valuable suggestions.
to improve their content. Hearty thanks are extended to Shri M.S. Trivedi and Shri S.K. Nischal for their willing assistance as and when required.

No words will be enough to thank Shri J.L. Bajaj and Shri A.S. Rawat who converted the palimpsest into a clear typescript very diligently and skilfully.

Last, but not least, I am very thankful to my wife, Promilla Jindal, for her moral support and for inspiring me to continue this piece of work and often buoying up my flagging spirits.
