CONTENTS

CHAPTER

I INTRODUCTION .................................................... 1-27
II METHODOLOGY ..................................................... 28-50
III THE LEVEL OF SCHOOLING AND MODERNITY IN A RURAL SETTING ............................................. 51-70
IV MODERNITY IN A RURAL AND AN URBAN SCHOOL : A COMPARISON ........................................ 71-87
V SCHOOL RANK AND MODERNITY : A COMPARISON OF TWO SCHOOLS IN THE URBAN SETTING........... 88-133
VI FACTORS AFFECTING THE STUDENT MODERNITY IN THE HIGH-RANKING SCHOOL .................................. 134-172
VII CONCLUSION ..................................................... 173-196

BIBLIOGRAPHY ..................................................... 191-216

APPENDIX

'A' Tables I to VI represent the social characteristics of respondents in the schools, and Table VII indicates the original as well as the replaced items in the 'modernity scale'

'B' Modernity scale

'C' Interview schedule for students

'D' Interview schedule for non-school male adolescents

'E' Interview schedule for the father

'F' Interview schedule for headmasters/teachers

'G' Schedule for the superintendent of the school-office

'H' School organisational climate description questionnaire (SOCDQ)