DEDICATED TO

THE MEMORY OF MY

GRAND MA
"The search for truth is one way hard and another easy,
For it is evident that no one can master it fully or miss it wholly,
But each adds a little to our knowledge of nature,
And from all the facts assembled there arises a certain grandeur"

- Aristotle