Acknowledgement

It gives me an immense pleasure to express my deep and sincere gratitude to my research supervisor Prof. Dilip D. Dhavale for all the advice, guidance and encouragement during every stage of this work.

I whole heartedly express my gratitude to Prof. Claudio Trombini, University of Bologna, Italy for my introduction to the field of asymmetric organocatalysis. I extend my grateful acknowledgement to the research group of Prof. Trombini including Prof. Marco, Dr. Arianna, Dr. Michel, Ms. Elisa and other friend at “Giacomo Ciamician” for making my 18 month long stay at Unibo (Bologna, Italy), comfortable, very friendly, cooperative and cheerful during Erasmus Mundus External Cooperation Window India4EU programme.

I express my sincere thanks to Prof. M. S. Wadia and Dr. Mrs. V. S. Shinde Department of Chemistry, University of Pune, for their support, encouragement and fruitful discussions during the course of this work.

I express my sincere gratitude to Prof. Mrs. R. S. Kusurkar and Prof. Madhurima Dikshit (Former Head), of our Department, who has provided me sufficient support to carry out my research work.

I am thankful to our collaborators Dr. B. A. Chopade, and Mr. Sougata Ghosh, Institute of Bioinformatics and Biotechnology, University of Pune, for glycosidase inhibitory activity studies; Prof. Shridhar Gejji and Dr. Rahul Pinjari, Physical Chemistry Division, Department of Chemistry, University of Pune, Pune for theoretical studies and helpful discussions.

I would also like to convey my deep gratitude to Prof. V. D. Bobade from HPT Arts and RYK Science College, Nashik and Dr. S. V. Patil from KTHM College, Nashik who showed me the right direction and fueling enthusiasm in me to pursue a career in research.

I gratefully acknowledge the training and support extended by my senior colleagues Dr. Ajishkumar, Dr. Mrs. Vrushali, Dr. Omprakash, Dr. N. N. Bhujbal, Dr. Rajendra, Dr. Vishwas and Dr. Amit during the tenure of my Ph.D. I would like to thank all my colleagues Dr. Madhuri, Dr. Puspesh, Dr. Ramesh, Dr. Maity, Vijay, Ajay, Vijaysingh, Nitin, Rajendra, Dhiraj, Pramod, Anant, Rahul, Sachin, Vyankat, Pravin, Sagar, Sushil, Deepanjali, Kishor, Shravan, Naresh, Harshad, Anuja and Archana for their cooperation and welcoming approach.
I would like to thank Mrs. J. P. Chaudhari, Mrs. Shital, Mr. Datta for NMR analysis and Mr. Basavraj for IR and elemental analysis. The kind help extended by the workshop, store and office staff at Department of Chemistry, is greatly acknowledged.

I am also thankful to my colleague from Department of Chemistry, Suvarna, Ajit, Kiran, Viraj, NCL-Pune and IISER Pune. I feel delighted to thank my childhood friends and M. Sc. friends.

My Family is always source of inspiration and great moral support for me in perceiving my education. It is impossible to express my sense of gratitude for my family, grandmother, my parents Dada and Akka, Uncle Nana and Tai, brother Appa, Sister Uma and Brother-in-law Jawahar and my cousins in mere words. Whatever I am and whatever I will be in future is because of their commitments to my ambitions and their selfless sacrifices. I am indeed indebted to my wife Surekha who showed immense patience and extended her encouragement and support which enable me to pursue my goal enthusiastically. I really grateful to my daughter Pranjal, who is full of happiness, joy and curiosity which brought endless happiness in my life. I am also thankful to my relatives for their encouragement and support.

Financial support from the Council for Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR), New Delhi, in the form of Junior and Senior Research Fellowships (JRF/SRF) is gratefully acknowledged. I take this opportunity to acknowledge EU for India4EU scholarship for the period of 18 months. At last but not the least, I thank unreservedly, the omnipotent God, the infinite supernatural spirit, for the strength and determination to keep me happy during tougher phase of life.
