ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A major portion of this study was completed under the direction of Dr Jagdish Chender, Ph.D. (Wisconsin), Professor and Chairman of the Department of English, Panjab University, Chandigarh. Unfortunately, he did not live to see the completion of this work. Dr Jagdish Chender was a great and affectionate teacher. He suggested rather than dogmatized, and inspired me with the wish to teach myself. My debt to him is infinite.

This study would have remained incomplete, but for Dr (Mrs) Nirmal Mukerji, Ph.D. (Louisiana), the present Chairman of the Department of English, Panjab University, who graciously agreed to become my Guide. I should like to express my indebtedness to her for helping me through the completion of this thesis. Her discerning and forthright criticism and ever-patient and wise direction proved extremely valuable in giving a new shape to this work. I am profoundly grateful to her.
