Many persons have helped me in completing this monograph. I am extremely thankful to my revered teacher and supervisor Dr. C.L. Datta, Reader, Department of History, Panjab University, Chandigarh for his suggestions, guidance and constant interest in the preparation of this work. Also my thanks are due to Dr. S.S. Bal, Professor and Head, Department of History, Punjabi University, Patiala, who suggested not only the topic but also encouraged and guided me throughout the work with keen interest. I would like to place on record my sincere thanks to Principal Sohan Singh, who helped me in preparing the geographical maps and graphs. My thanks are also due to Professors N.L. Verma, Abinash Chander Sharma and Principal Mrs.S.Verma who went through the thesis and suggested many corrections.

I am grateful to the Heads and the Secretaries of various centres of the Radha Soami Movement in the Punjab, Haryana and Delhi, who permitted me to make use of valuable historical records and documents in their possession. I am equally grateful to those who spared time, not in hours but in days to answer my queries. I shall be failing in my duty if I do not extend my gratitude to Maharaj Charan Singh Grewal, the present Head of the Radha Soami Satsang Beas, who gave me permission to use the library and the records of the Centre. My thanks are due to the authorities of the National Archives of India, New Delhi,
Central Secretariat Library, New Delhi, Panjab University Library, Chandigarh, Dwarka Dass Library, Chandigarh, Panjab University Extension Library, Ludhiana, Central Public Library Patiala, Sikh Reference Library, Amritsar, Sewan Library, Radha Soami Satsang Beas, Punjab Agricultural University Library, Ludhiana, S.D.P. College for Women Library, Ludhiana, Punjabi University Library, Patiala, Punjab State Archives, Patiala, Haryana State Archives, Chandigarh, Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee, Amritsar and the Deputy Commissioners of various districts in the Punjab, Haryana and Delhi for permission to make use of the material in their possession.

Chandigarh

Om Parkash Gal (Kaushal)