ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First of all I would like to express heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Tapas Mukhopadhyay for providing me with ideal scientific expertise and teaching me how to design, plan and execute experiments. I thank him for his continuous support and encouragement throughout the course of this work and for the great effort he put into training me in the scientific field. It has been a long, and many a times an extremely arduous journey, but a fulfilling one all the same. These years have taught me patience, resilience, hard work and most of all perseverance. Thank you, sir, for being a wonderful and loving teacher and for your continuous efforts towards my betterment.

I wish to thank and acknowledge Dr. Sumita Sarkar for her valuable guidance and help in starting the culture lab during the initial stages of my work.

I would also like to extend my thanks to all the non teaching staff of the department - Neelam ma'am, Indu ma'am, Surender ma'am, Ram Bidhi ji, Gangadhar ji, Harjeet, Bahadur ji and Hema ji for their good natured and friendly assistance whenever required.

The award of Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) and Senior Research Fellowship (SRF) by the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR) is gratefully acknowledged.

I alongwith Ashok sir (Dr. Ashok Kumar) were the first of sir's PhD students and the time spent with him is truly memorable. I thank him for the easy and light hearted atmosphere he always created in the lab and also for being a constant companion during sir's hour long scoldings in his office and the innumerable times we were expelled for coming late!

I'd like to thank Sandeep (Dr. Sandeep Singh) for the constant support, help and encouragement and for being there always.
Thanks to Ambica for all the good times we had together and also for always being with me in lab whenever I had to work till late.

A special thanks to Vibhuti who's just like a younger sister to me, for faith in my abilities and constant words of encouragement and appreciation.

Finally, I take this opportunity to express profound gratitude to my beloved parents and my brother for their unwavering love, patience and continuous support – both spiritually and materially. Thanks for teaching me the right values and the importance of making ceaseless effort towards self-improvement regardless of the outward circumstances. And most of all, thank you for the selfless love and unfailing trust in my abilities always.
