Acknowledgements

No research work of this magnitude can be accomplished without the sustained help and co-operation of many people and agencies. First of all, I thank my Supervisor, Dr. Anu Celly, Reader, Department of English, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for her sagacious guidance and for the freedom of thought she permitted me in allowing my ideas to grow.

I am thankful to the UGC for giving me Financial Assistance under the Minor Research Project Scheme.

I thank the IACIS, Hyderabad for making my two research-related trips in March 2001 and March 2003 comfortable. The 2001 trip would not have been possible without the Travel Study Grant given by the IACIS.

I am thankful to the AIRC, New Delhi and to the IACIS, Hyderabad for their postal book-loan facility.

The faculty, office and library staff of the Department of English, Panjab University, Chandigarh have been a valuable source of inputs from time to time. I thank them.

I am thankful to PCS Zone, Sector-15D, Chandigarh, for typesetting my dissertation to my entire satisfaction.

Last but not the least, I owe this work to my family, my husband Dinesh and specially my son, Karan, who understood his mother’s time constraints while working on this project.

Thanks to all of you.
