Acknowledgements

First I would like to dedicate a small verse as a tribute to all my teachers from whom I have learnt

I thank thee, O Teacher,
For the power of aiding me in Life’s darkest hour,
The generous heart and the bountiful hand,
And all the kind help that students like me understand.

If the words are considered as a symbol of approval and token of appreciation, then let the words play the heralding role of expressing my gratitude.

On the recollection of so many and great favours and blessings, I now, with a high sense of gratitude, presume to offer up my sincere thanks to the Almighty, the Creator and Preserver for showering me the physical and mental strength to undertake this challenging task. I am most thankful to Almighty Providence for mercies received; I would like to express my heartiest thanks to the Almighty for showering his choicest blessings upon me and providing me with the courage to overcome the darkness of ignorance.

Looking back, I am surprised and at the same time very grateful for all I have received throughout these years. It has certainly shaped me as a person and has led me where I am now. All these years of PhD studies are full of such gifts.

I owe a great many thanks to a great many people who helped and supported me during the writing of this thesis. The tedious task that I undertook would have been impossible to complete had I not been helped on my journey by them. They say journey is always to be cherished than the end for the end results are never in our hand. So I have a great many intellectual souls to thank for making this journey memorable and rewarding.

I would start by offering my deepest thanks to, Prof. (Dr.) S. P. Vj my esteemed teacher and supervisor, for all the hope he has put on me, before I thought I could do any research at all. I applaud the amount of pain he took to go through the thesis and make necessary correction as and when needed. I would also like to take this opportunity to thank him for sparing his valuable time in making the suggestions for improving the quality of the text and giving me untiring help during my difficult moments. It has been a tremendous honor to work with a person of such great intellect and knowledge yet so grounded and ever ready to extend a helping hand.

I would like to gratefully acknowledge the enthusiastic supervision of Prof. (Dr.) Promila Pathak, for her invaluable guidance, constructive criticism and constant inspiration during the entire course of my research work. Without her enthusiasm, her inspiration, and her great efforts to explain things clearly and simply, I would have been lost. She always motivated me with her scientific ideas and thought provoking discussions. It is because of her, commitment that I have been able to complete this immense and astounding task.

My sincere thanks are due to Prof. R. K. Kohli, Chairman, Department of Botany, Panjab University, Chandigarh, and his predecessors Professors S. P. Khullar, M. L. Sharma, and J. S. Dua for providing me necessary facilities and able co-operation for this work. I appreciate the timely help of all the teaching and non-teaching staff members of the department.

I owe my most sincere gratitude to Mrs. Usha Vij for her affection and encouragement.

I gratefully acknowledged all my seniors Dr. Ashish Gupta, Dr. Sharada, Dr. Anu, Dr. Arpita for their good wishes and many insightful discussions and suggestions whenever asked for.

I thankfully acknowledge the good wishes and encouragement given by my colleagues Monika Singh, Dr. Mandeep Kaur, Dr. Geetanjali, Dr. Anju, Dr. Sanjeev Thakur, Dr. Sandeep Angra, Dr. Lucky.

I gratefully acknowledge Dev Raj ji, Daya madam, Mr. Amarjeet Singh, Ms Neelam, Gurdev Sir, and Meena Singh for their help in various ways.

I would also like to thanks my college principal Dr. Rekha Kalia Bharadwaj and my colleagues and friends Dr. Meena Sharma (HOD), Dr. Anjana, Dr. Mani, Mrs Rama Sharma, Ms Kajal, Mrs Ramanita Sharada, Mrs Shubhdeep, and Dr. Nitika who were an immense source of inspiration and support to me and I am indeed much pleased to acknowledge their eveready help as and when required during the course of my work.

Finally, I am forever indebted to my respected parents (Sh. Surinder Chauhan and Smt. Geeta Chauhan) for their understanding, endless patience, and encouragement when it was most required. They bore me, raised me, supported me, taught me, and loved me. My sisters (Mrs. Shikha and Ms. Shelly) and brother (Mr. Abhishekar) have given me their unequivocal support throughout, as always, for which my mere expression of thanks likewise does not suffice.

A penultimate thank-you goes to my wonderful Parents-in-law (Sh. J.N. Sharma and Smt. Pushap lata Sharma) for always being there when I needed most, and never once complaining about how infrequently I visit, they deserve far more credit than I can ever give them.
My final, and most heartfelt, acknowledgement must go to my husband Sanjay Sharma, who also accomplished without complaints the endless errands and has worked diligently, and successfully. His support, encouragement, and companionship have turned my journey into a pleasure. For all that, and for being everything I am not, he has my everlasting love.

Last but not least I would acknowledge the silent and innocent sufferer my little son Savar.

The list of persons with whom I have collaborated at various stages is by no means exhaustive. I have benefited from the assistance and advice of many which I am pleased to acknowledge collectively.

I finish with a final silence of gratitude for my life.

Date: (Shaveta Chauhan)