ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. (Mrs.) Tehal Kohli, Reader, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh for her enlightened guidance and constant encouragement throughout the course of conducting this study. Her constructive criticism, deep interest and intellectual acumen have contributed to improve the quality of the thesis.

I am thankful to Dr. Harish Sharma, Chairman, Department of Education, Panjab University for providing facilities for undertaking the research work.

I am grateful to the Principal and my colleagues of G.H.G. Harparkash College of Education, Sidhwan Khurd, Distt. Ludhiana for extending their help and encouragement.

I extend my thanks to the Director, State Bureau of Educational and Vocational Guidance, SCERT, Punjab and the Officer-Incharge of Department of Educational and Vocational Guidance, SIE, Chandigarh for extending their co-operation.

Thanks are expressed to Dr. (Mrs.) Asha Bhatnagar, Reader, Department of Educational Psychology, Counselling and Guidance, NCERT, New Delhi for providing the necessary information.

Thanks are also extended to Assistant District Guidance Counsellors, Assistant Employment Officers (V.G.), administrators, guidance workers, teachers, students and their parents who were involved in the study.

I am grateful to my brother Mr. Sukhmehar Singh for his constant help and support throughout the course of conducting the present work. Thanks are also extended to my relatives and near and dear ones who have contributed to the successful completion of this work.

I am also thankful to Mr. Mohit Srivastva of NEST for undertaking the onerous task of printing the manuscript.

May 1991

(SAWARNJIT KAUR)