ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I have the privilege of completing this project under the joint supervision of Dr. J.N. Joshi, Reader, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh and Dr. (Mrs.) H.K. Tajhawan, Head, Department of Psychology, Panjab University, Chandigarh. I owe a debt of gratitude to them for their ungrudging and remarkably insightful guidance, as and when needed. Their professional acumen and painstaking efforts have immensely contributed to my training as a researcher as also to improving the quality of the thesis.

I acknowledge my sincere thanks to the University Grants Commission for providing partial financial assistance for the conduct of this study and to the Vice-Chancellor, the Dean of Academic Affairs and Students Welfare, and the Head, Department of Psychology, Guru Nanak University, Amritsar through whom the assistance could be made possible. They have been taking keen interest in the progress of my work for which I shall ever remain grateful.

For the subjects involved in the study, I have fond remembrance and I owe my thanks to them for their cooperation. I am equally grateful to the Heads of different institutions for allowing me in collecting data and for providing all possible help.

I highly value the words of encouragement and help from my friends and colleagues, which motivated me to sustain efforts and accelerated the pace of research work.

Lastly, I wish to express my appreciation to the many authors whose works I consulted very often and quoted in my research report.

Chandigarh
Jan., 1975

(Sudesh Kumari Gakhar)