ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is not only a matter of pleasure but of great privilege to acknowledge my profound gratitude to all those who helped me in this endeavour.

I owe a sense of unbound indebtedness to my supervisor, Dr.(Mrs.) Tehal Kohli, Reader, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for her ungrudging, incisive and extremely illuminating guidance at all stages of the development of this study. Her painstaking efforts and precious advice have immensely contributed in improving the quality of thesis. The inexhaustive degree of patience and forbearance shown by her makes me feel moved. I wish my words could express my true feelings for her.

It is my pleasant duty to extend my thanks to Dr.(Miss) Sudesh Gakhar, Chairman, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for rendering help and providing all possible facilities for smoothly conducting and completing this work.

I acknowledge my thanks to the Director and Child Development Project Officer of ICDS who have permitted me to carry out this research work in the anganwadi centres of Chandigarh.

Anganwadi workers of various anganwadis of Chandigarh who have helped me in collecting data from their anganwadis, parents of children who have provided information about their wards, and children who acted as subjects of the present study deserve my special thanks.

My special thanks are due to Dr. (Mrs.) R. Muralidharan who has provided me with her original research article and Behaviour Problems Inventory which I have used in this research work.

I am greatly indebted to Dr. S. Bijou, University of Arizona (USA), for furnishing off prints of his own original articles which have proved to be of great help for this piece of research.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not show my indebtedness to all those researchers whose works not only inspired me to work in this direction but also provided useful hints which gave me a clear line of action.

I highly value the words of encouragement and help from my brother Mr. Balbir Singh and from my friends which motivated me to sustain efforts and accelerated the pace of my research work.

I acknowledge my thanks to Mr. C.M. Behl, Incharge of the Computer Centre and Mr. A.K. Dhawan Assistant Programmer in the Computer Centre, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for their cooperation and help in the processing of data. My special thanks are due to Mr. O.P. Sarna for his cartographic assistance. I express my gratitude to Mr. Trilochan Singh, who has typed this manuscript with his utmost skill and accuracy.
Last, but not the least, I am deeply indebted to my husband who has been a source of constant inspiration and encouragement to me. I might not have been able to present this piece of research but for his sincere cooperation and benign assistance.
