ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I owe a sense of unbounded indebtedness to my supervisor, Dr. (Miss) Sudesh Gakhar, Reader, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for her ungrudging, incisive and extremely illuminating guidance at all stages of the development of this study. Her painstaking efforts and precious advice have immensely contributed in improving the quality of the thesis. The inexhaustible degree of patience and forbearance shown by her makes me feel moved. I wish my words could express my true feelings for her.

It gives me tremendous pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. J.K. Joshi, Professor, Department of Education, Panjab University, for his sincere and useful advice and keen personal interest in this research project, despite his onerous duties.

It is my pleasant duty to extend my thanks to Dr. S.S. Mathur, Chairman, Department of Education, for rendering help and providing all possible facilities for smoothly conducting and completing this work.

I acknowledge my thanks to the University Grants Commission for the award of fellowship and other financial assistance in the form of contingency grant.
I shall be failing in my duty if I don't reciprocate the feelings of love and affection shown by hundreds of students and their teachers and heads of the institutions with whom I came in contact during the various stages of data collection.

I wish to express my heartiest thanks to Mr. C.M. Bahl for his sincere efforts and ingenuity in developing and conducting diversified computer programmes for the calculation work involved in the study. I am also earnestly thankful to Mr. Trilochan Singh who typed and retyped the manuscript with personal interest.

I highly value the words of encouragement and help from my friends which motivated me to sustain efforts and accelerated the pace of research work.

Lastly, I wish to express my appreciation to many authors whose work I have consulted and quoted in my research work.
