The lure of lovely Himachal

Himachal opens up wonderful vistas of breathtaking beauty and tranquility. The Dhauiadhar peaks rise majestically to command a splendid view. Dharamsala nestles in the enchanting hills, with crisp, clean mountain air.

Lower Dharamsala comprises haat-bazaars, bungalows, schools and other educational centres. In the Upper Dharamsala lies McLeod Ganj — Dalai Lama’s seat, Tibetan Colony. From Dharamsala, one can venture to Baijnath, one of the foremost pilgrimage centres, an ancient Shiva temple believed to have been built by Pandavas. Also worth visiting are Elgin’s Memorial, Forsyth Ghat, Tea Gardens and the famous Jwalamukhi Temple.

Calm and quiet Palampur soothes your senses. It has an array of fascinating trails and walks. The lush valley of Kangra has given rise to a distinct school of art and miniature paintings. One can spend hours admiring them.

HIMACHAL

Skiing, Rohtang
Nestling among the towering deodars and pines of the Shiwalik slopes, Chail was once a royal retreat. It promises a variety of outdoor attractions including idyllic walks, both easy and the not-so-easy treks, probably the world’s highest cricket ground and superbly commanding views of the Himalayan snowline.

Palace Hotel at Chail grandly reflects the royal era of yesteryears.
