ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am extremely grateful to my teacher and supervisor Dr. Anand Bhushan, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for his expert guidance and painstaking efforts in accomplishing the assignment. He evinced deep interest in dealing with the problem. His deep insight into the subject has helped me in bringing about a lot of qualitative improvement in the work at various stages. I gratefully acknowledge his able guidance, and also the enlightenment which he bestowed upon me during the conduct and reporting of the present investigation.

I am highly thankful to Dr. Harish Sharma, Chairman, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for his prompt co-operation and help to provide me administrative facilities.

I am also thankful to all the members of the faculty of Education, Panjab University for their co-operation and help in enabling me to carry out the present investigation.

I also express my indebtedness to Dr. Mala Bhushan, Department of Education, Panjab University, who helped me by continuously encouraging to work hard and lastly by editing the language of the thesis.

I am thankful to all the officers, headmasters, teachers and students of non-formal education in Bangkok,
Thailand who have extended their help and cooperation during collection of data for the present investigation and have provided all possible assistance.

I am sincerely thankful to all the Thai friends for their assistance during the different stages of data collection. I am also thankful to Indian friends for their help in checking the final draft of the thesis.

The typing work done by Mr. Jatinder Kumar also deserves appreciations.

I am greatly indebted to my parents and teachers at the Monastery for providing me full support and inspiring me to put in best of my abilities in accomplishing the research project.
