ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

With utmost reverence I thank the GOD ALMIGHTY for showering his blessings for the successful completion of my Ph. D programme. Every effort in the realm of research is the concerted endeavour of several individuals and this thesis is no different either. I gratefully acknowledge every piece of help that I have received towards the completion of this project.

I have great pleasure to express my profound gratitude and intense debt to my supervising teachers, Dr V B Hosagoudar and Dr P G Latha of Jawaharlal Nehru Tropical Botanic Garden and Research Institute (JNTBGRI), Palode, Thiruvananthapuram who have over the years, guided my work with great patience for their excellent ideas, immense encouragement, motivation and have been around at every stage to help me through this effort for the successful completion of this work. Their knowledge, wisdom, dedication and support have been outstanding and greatly inspired me. Their selection of topic, constant encouragement and valuable guidance are greatly responsible for the successful completion of this piece of work. I extend my deep and sincere gratitude to Dr. S Rajasekharan, Former head, Ethnomedicine and Ethnopharmacology Division, JNTBGRI, Palode for his love and affection, inspiration and encouragement towards me during the study.
