ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

An attempt has been made in this thesis to trace historical approach to the Socio-Economic Conditions of Kanyakumari District 1956 - 1986 A.D.

The year 1956 marks the memorable beginning of the State of Madras later named State of Tamil Nadu. The recommendations of the State Reorganisation Commission were accepted by the Indian Parliament and the State Reorganisation Act was passed in March 1956. On the 1st November 1956, Kanyakumari District of Tamil Nadu emerged with Nagercoil as its headquarters. The State Reorganisation Act (XXXVII) of 1956 created the district of "Kanyakumari" after the name of the virgin goddess. The Art and Architecture of Kanyakumari District stand as a testimony to the greatness of Indian Culture till today.

I deem it my most pleasant duty to gratefully acknowledge the invaluable and scholarly guidance given to me by Dr. N. Rajalakshmi, M.A., M.Phil., Ph.D., Professor of Economics, University of Madras for guiding this thesis. I sincerely thank her for the encouragement extended to me during the preparation of my thesis.
