ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Looking back at the three years of my research tenure, makes me think of some special persons to whom I owe gratitude.

I am immensely grateful to my supervisor, Dr. (Mrs.) Pushpinder Syal, Reader, Department of English for her most valuable guidance, fruitful and stimulating discussions and above all for sparing time from her busy schedule. She has been a constant source of inspiration throughout my research career. Her suggestions have benefited me greatly.

It gives me pleasure to express my gratitude to all my friends who helped me in numerous ways. Special thanks are due to Dr. Neerja Sood, Chairperson, Department of Hindi, for her constant moral support and encouragement.

I am also thankful to the entire staff of the A.C. Joshi Library for helping me locate books and articles and also for arranging books from other universities.

Words fail me to give expression to my immense gratitude to my children Ankit and Shreya for their remarkable patience in allowing me to spend long hours in my research. I am also thankful to a young girl Renu for managing my house during this difficult period.

I would also like to thank my typist Mrs. Rama Kaushal for bringing my thesis in its present form.

Ms. Praveen Sharda
Department of English