ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

With profound sense of gratitude I express my sincere thanks to my supervisors; Dr. Ms. Sween, Senior Project Officer, Department of Adult and Continuing Education and Extension, Panjab University, Chandigarh and Dr. Ms. Rajinder Kaur, Associate Professor, International Centre for Distance Education and Open Learning, Himachal Pradesh University. My language can not express the feelings of my heart, as I seek to give expression to them for their ungrudging interest, untiring help, inspiring and incisive guidance and constant encouragement of my revered supervisors. Their illuminating and timely guidance, learned advice, whole hearted co-operation and constructive criticism, made it possible for me to complete this research study.

I owe my deepest regards to Dr. Harish Sharma of the Department of Education, Panjab University for his constant encouragement, useful suggestions and all the help provided to me. His over-willing helpfulness made it possible for me to complete this work.

It is my pleasant duty to express my thanks to Dr. Sudesh Gakhar, Professor, Department of Education, Panjab University, who always inspired me for this research work.

I gratefully acknowledge the help of all principals, school lecturers and teachers, who helped me in the data collection. I am thankful to Mr. Mahendru of Computer Centre, Panjab University for his help in analysis of the data and Mr. Rajesh Arora for typing the entire thesis with utmost sincerity and patience. I gratefully acknowledge the services of Mr. Amit of Computer Centre, Panjab University for his co-operation in helping me to browse and collect related studies on Internet.

I express my appreciation to various authors, publishers and other educationists and psychologists, whose studies have been consulted, while working on the problem in hand. Besides, I owe my debt to many who helped me in course of this study by providing valuable information or comments; they are too numerous to be listed individually.

Lastly, I thank my husband Raghunath Kumar and my daughter Jivasha, for encouraging and helping me in this work for days and nights together.
