Acknowledgements

At the outset, I express deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Kanchan Khare and Dr. Shreenivas Londhe for registering me as their Ph. D. Student. Their guidance, encouragement and motivation have been beyond formality...They have been my best friends, philosophers and guides during the entire period of research.

I am indebted to the Management of Vishwakarma Institutes, Pune; especially the Managing Trustee Bharatji R. Agarwal, and Dr. Bilavari S. Karkare, Principal – Vishwakarma Institute of Information Technology, Pune of for permitting me to pursue the Doctoral work.

I appreciate the support and cooperation of Dr. S. D. Lokhande, Principal, Sinhgad College of Engineering. I am thankful to Dr. S. S. Shasrti, Head of Department, and Dr. S. T. Mali, from Department of Civil Engineering, Sinhgad College of Engineering for helping me in case of difficulties.

My special thanks are due to Dr. H. K. Abhyankar and Prof. R. D. Mahadeokar who were instrumental in motivating me to pursue the work. I also thank colleagues from Vishwakarma Institute of Information Technology, my friends and well-wishers for encouraging me in one way or the other for the work.

I am grateful to the editors and (unknown) reviewers of the Journals – Ocean Engineering and Applied Ocean Research – for giving valuable suggestions to enhance the quality of work during the process of the review of our papers. I express my heartfelt gratitude to the authorities of National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA, USA) for promptly replying to my queries and for making the data available free of cost on their web-sites for researchers like me.

Last but not the least, my sincere thanks are due to my father P. M. Nitsure, my wife Ashwini, and daughters Prajakta and Sharmishtha for their constant support.

Being a theist, I thank the Almighty for creating Life, the beautiful Mother Earth and Panchmahabootas for us to search and research!
