Though only my name appears on the cover of this thesis, a great many people have contributed to its production. I owe my heartfelt gratitude to all those people who have made my research work possible and because of whom my research experience has been one that I will cherish forever.

First and foremost I want to thank my research supervisor Dr. Ravindra R. Kamble, for supporting me during these five years. It has been an honour to be his research student. He has taught me, both consciously and unconsciously, how good experimental chemistry is done. I appreciate all his contributions of time, ideas and interactions to make my research experience productive and stimulating. The joy and enthusiasm he has for research was contagious and motivational for me, even during tough times of research period. What I learn from him is not just how to pursue a Ph.D. degree, but how to view this world from a new perspective. Dr. Kamble is someone you will instantly love and never forget once you meet him.

I want to express my deep thanks to Prof. S. T. Nandibewoor, Prof. S. A. Patil and Prof. S. A. Chimatdar, former Chairmen, and Prof. M. V. Kulkarni, present Chairman, Department of Studies in Chemistry for their support and providing in time facilities.

A work could reach to a high altitude by conducting research in a multidisciplinary area. I am grateful to Dr. B. V. Badami Professor of Organic Chemistry (Retd.), Prof. M. V. Kulkarni, Prof. K. M. Hosamani, Prof. I. M. Khazi, Dr. L. A. Shastri and Dr. K. Sujatha and to all the teachers of Dept. of Chemistry, for their support, interactions and blessings throughout my Ph.D. journey.
