ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very outset, I put my indebtedness and deep sense of gratitude to my research guide Dr. Ashita Raveendran. Without her help and support it is impossible for me to complete my work successfully. In between the work I have to suffer a lot, both mentally and physically. At that time she supported me as a sister and words are limited to express my indebtedness to her.

I am grateful to Dr. Mohanan Pillai (Centre for Development Studies, Trivandrum) and Dr. Sukumaran (Rtd Professor, Cochin University of Science and Technology, CUSAT) for their valuable suggestions and advices for improving my work. I express my sincere thanks to Dr Lakshmy Devi (Rtd Professor, Calicut University) for her suggestions and changes made in the title during the evaluation of preliminary PhD thesis.

I am taking this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to the General Manager and all the office staffs at the District Industrial Centre for their valuable help and directions. The help provided by Mr. Ramakrishnan and Mr. Raveendran are innumerable.

Without the support and help of the staff at the research centre, it is not possible for me to complete my work successfully. For this Sudha Madam (Deputy Librarian & Head of Research Centre) and other staffs helped me a lot. All the administrative and library staff helped me at all stages of research work without any hesitation. The infrastructure and all other facilities available are good and were utilised at the best of my knowledge.

I also express my sincere thanks to the secretaries and other staffs of all the co-operative societies of Kannur district, who have willingly provided the records/valuable documents required to me. The discussions with workers, office staff and secretaries helped me a lot to enrich my knowledge about the working and various activities of the society.

Let me also express my sincere thanks to Dr. P C Salim (Former Principal, S.N College, Kannur) and Dr. Kamalasanan (Principal, S.N college, Kannur). They provided all help by sending me to do research on deputation under the FDP of UGC and provided timely help to smoothen all related paper work.

I am also indebted to Smt. P S Indira (Head of the Department) Dr. K M Devadas, Smt Vandana Mukundan, Smt Jayasree and my other colleagues of economics department at Sree Narayana College, Kannur for their support and help extended to me for doing my work. Smt. Preetha K C (Associate Professor, Department of Physics), Dr. Shekhar (Department of Botany), Dr. Bhaskaran (Department of Commerce) and Dr. Padmanabhan (Department of History) helped and supported me a lot.

I also convey my sincere thanks to all the staff members of Kannur University for giving all kinds of help for the conduct and submission of my work.

Without the support of my family members I am helpless to complete the work. My father had great expectation about the completion of my work, but in between he left us. Whatever work I have done is because of his blessings and I am submitting this work for his memory. My husband, my dear son and mother and all the relatives provided me great support.

For the preparation of my thesis, I have received a lot of encouragements, advice, suggestions and assistance from several sources. My friends at the research centre helped and supported me. If anyone left, I am taking this opportunity to thank all those helpful hands.

Finally, I say thanks to you, the almighty! Whose invisible hands supported me.
