Acknowledgements

With the blessing of God let me write that the source of honours for the completion of the work embodied in the present thesis is due to numerous persons by whom I have been inspired, helped by many ways.

First and foremost, I take an opportunity to express my utmost gratitude and heartfelt appreciation to my research supervisor, Dr Mukesh Patel for his guidance, stimulating suggestions, making the working conditions pleasant, and encouragement throughout my research work and thesis writing. I am most grateful for all the scientific knowledge, I have gained from him and all the fruitful discussions we have had.

I also owe to, from the deepest corner of heart, deepest sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Dr K Vyas (VP, AR & D, Dr Reddy’s Laboratory) and Dr Pramod Dalvi (VP, CQA, Watson Laboratory Ltd.) for their constant encouragement during my research work.

I am also thankful to Mr Jay Nagar, Ms Jalpa, Dr L Kalyanaraman, Dr Ganesh Jadhav, Vijay Bhusare, Dr Hitesh Patel, Dr Pankaj Kachadia, Dr Hitesh Jogia, Tapan Trivedi, Krishna H Trivedi and Khushal for their constant support.

I can never forget my younger brother Harshal, I assure him to be worthy of whatever he has done for me.
I would like to reserve a special line for my wife Dipika, for her unwavering love, understanding and constant support which have made my life a beautiful experience to live, her continuous support encourage me to be the best that I can be. I am thankful to my son Krishiv to allow me happily to do work on off-days and late night that was also the silent support for me.

I am also thankful to my father-in-law Aniruddha Trivedi and mother-in-law Nirupama Trivedi for their immense support and motivation during this endeavour.

I express my grateful acknowledgment to the principal, Dr A S Gor and all staff members of Pramukh Swami Science and H D Patel Arts College, Kadi and administrative staff of Kadi Sarva Vishwa Vidyalaya University, Gandhinagar for their research facilities and kind considerations to me.

I pay all my homage and devote my emotions to “My Parents” without whose blessing this task would not have been accomplished. I bow my head with utter respect to my beloved mother Smt. Dakshaben for her continuous source of inspiration, motivation and devotion to me, and my late father Shri Kanubhai for the uncompromising principles that guided my life.

Lastly I would like to thank each and every one of them who helped me directly or indirectly during this research program and lots of experience gaining journey. I once again bow my head before almighty to facilitate me at any stage of my dream to accomplish this task.
