The study would not have been in its final structure without the support of librarian Mrs. Gauri Kulkarni, Mrs. Vaidya and all the staff of Prin. N.G. Institute and all my friends from Dnyanganga Institute of Career Empowerment and Research, Nhare, Pune, I sincerely thank all of them.

I take this opportunity to express my deepest gratitude to the broadband users from Pune city area, who not only responded to my questionnaire but also have given their valuable suggestions for this study. Without their responses I could not have seen the end of my research.

Special thanks to my Ph.D. colleagues, Mrs. Kasande Pallavi, Mr. Shinde Santosh, Mr. Apte Santosh, Mrs. Roy Monica and Mr. Sasane who always encouraged, motivated and always remained with me.

I shall always remain grateful to Mr. Sanjeev Kulkarni, Mr. Viren Chaadhari, Mr. Bharat Sonavane, Mr. Mirashe Shivaji, Prof. Dr. Chavan Shivaji, Prof. Dr. Patil Prashant, Mr. Bapusaheb Gaikwad, Mr. Atul Chavan, Mr. Chandure Deepak, Mr. Patil Ajay, Mr. More Ashok, Mr. Sangamnerkar, Mr. Kotgire Satish and Dr. Pable for their genuine critique and appreciation from time to time.

I am thankful to: Prin. General Manager BSNL Pune and GM/AGM Administration Pune, who have given permission to enroll for Ph. D. while on duty. I also thank all GM's, Dy. GM's, AGM's and SDE/JTO's, All SNEA Members, MTNL/Alok Fab. friends, especially AGM, SDE's, JTO's and all staff from Yerwada (External/Internal/CSC), NIB-MHS, who always provoked and encouraged me during this study.

The continual support of my wife Suvarna, son Dnyanesh, daughter Sanskruti, my sisters Yoju, Archu and Suvi, the real spirit behind my research study, made this thesis possible.

My parents Mr. Damodar B. Alandkar and Mrs. Kusum Damodar Alandkar the stalwarts in my life. There are no words that would voice the gratitude that I have for my parents for their pure love and for the unwavering faith in my dreams and belief that I would accomplish this monumental task. The fruition of your dreams is seen in this study.
