ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am extremely indebted to a large number of individuals and institutions who have helped me in one way or the other in the preparation of this thesis.

First and foremost, this thesis has been prepared under the able supervision and guidance of Dr H. Rajashekar, Senior Faculty, Department of Post Graduate Studies and Research in Commerce, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri, Mysore. Without his untiring guidance, unstinted help and inspiration at all the stages of this work, it would not have been possible for me to complete this thesis. I am indeed fortunate to have been a research student of Dr H. Rajashekar. It has been ineffable for me to express my profound gratitude, deepest sense of indebtedness and reverence to him.

I am extremely grateful to Kuvempu University authorities for having enabled me to pursue my research work.

I am grateful to the Management and the Principal Rev Dr Eugene Lobo s.j of St Aloysius College, Mangalore for permitting me to undertake this research work and making me available all the facilities I needed to complete the work. Prof. A.M. Narahari, Prof. Manuel Tauro, Prof. Herald Fernandes and other colleagues in the Department of Commerce, St Aloysius College, Mangalore have been a source of inspiration and support for my research work. I am very much thankful to them. I am grateful to the office staff of St Aloysius College, Mangalore for their help and co-operation. Special thanks are due to Mr Ramachandra Basri, UGC clerk, Dr Mahalinga Bhat and Mr Nagaraj U.C for their help throughout my research work. I thank immensely Prof. Donald Lobo, Vice-Principal, St Aloysius Evening College, Mangalore for his encouragement and help throughout.
I thank Prof. Bakkappa, Director, Kuvempu University, Post Graduate Centre, Davangere. I am grateful to Prof. G.T. Govindappa, and Prof. J. Madegowda, Chairman, Department of Post Graduate Studies and Research in Commerce, Kuvempu University for their help and co-operation during my Teacher Fellowship and my thanks are also due to all the members of the Faculty, Department Studies in Commerce, Kuvempu University, Post Graduate Centre, Davangere.

I wish to thank the Librarians and Staff of Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore (IIMB); Institute of Social and Economic Change, Bangalore (ISEC); Kerala Institute of Travel and Tourism, Thiruvananthapuram; Goa University, Goa; Mangalore University, Mangalore; Kuvempu University, Post Graduate Centre, Davangere; Welcome Group of Hotel Administration, Manipal; T. A. Pai Management Institute, Manipal (TAPMI); St Aloysius College, Mangalore; and St Aloysius Evening College, Mangalore; who were kind enough to permit me to use their library facility.

I am grateful to the Department of Tourism, Government of Karnataka, and the Tourist Guides, Travel Agents/ Tour Operators and their staff for having supplied me with the necessary data for the study.

I am also grateful to the Director, College Development Council, Mangalore University, and the University Grants Commission for awarding Teacher Fellowship under Faculty Improvement Programme during X Plan period for the completion my research work.

A special note of thanks goes to Mrs Sucharitha Suresh, Statistician, Department of Hospital Administration, Fr Muller Medical College, Mangalore for her valuable help in statistical tools and analysis used in this thesis. I am also thankful to Prof. Charles Furtado, Department of English, St Aloysius College, Mangalore, for making the necessary corrections and proof reading the draft of the thesis. I am grateful to Mr Mahesh Kumar Chowta, who executed the computer work of this thesis neatly.
My wife Mrs Sucharitha and my daughter baby Suhitha deserve my heartfelt thanks for their tolerance and unflinching support extended to me throughout this study. I am also grateful to my parents, parents-in-law, brothers, sisters and brothers and sisters-in-laws who have been a constant source of inspiration to me. This thesis is dedicated to the memory of my beloved father Late Shri Komba Poojary.

Place: Davangere
Date: 25-01-2006

SURESH POOJARY