ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am immensely happy to express my first and foremost thanks and deep sense of gratitude to my Research Supervisor Prof. K. Govindappa, Department of Rural Development and Social Work, Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Anantapur who has been a source of perennial inspiration to me for undertaking this research and also for his able guidance and advice throughout the period of my study.

I am indebted to Prof. C. Sudhakar, Chairman, Board of Studies, Department of Rural Development and Social Work, for his encouragement. I must place on a record keen interest, encouragement and cooperation received from Prof. D. Chenna Reddy, Head, Department of Rural Development and Social Work, Prof. G. Sreedhar, Prof. V. Reddappa Reddy, Prof. K. Bhaskar, Prof. R. Suguna Kumari, and Dr. M. Muni Narayanappa of Department of Rural Development and Social Work, S.K University, Anantapur.

I am whole-heartedly grateful to K. Chandra Sekhar Rao, Principal, K.S.R. Government Junior College, Anantapur, and my colleagues for their loving care and encouragement in completion of this work.
I sincerely acknowledge the assistance rendered in various forms and timely help at various stages of my research work by Smt. K. Padmavathamamma, Assistant Project Manager, Bukkaraya Samudram.

My thanks are due to the officials of DRDA, Anantapur, Chief Planning Officer, Anantapur, Staff of Mandal Samakya, Bukkaraya Samudram, who provided me the necessary data and information for my study and who interacted and enlightened me with regard to the NREGP.

I thank the authorities of Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Anantapur and non-teaching staff of the Department of Rural Development and Social Work for giving me an opportunity to complete my M. Phil degree.

I am also thankful to the beneficiaries whom I met during the course of my study, who were highly generous in sparing their precious time in sharing their experiences and views.

Finally I thank Ram_Sun computers for taking pains in neatly typing the Dissertation.
