SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY

PRIMARY SOURCES

NOVELS

Nwapa, Flora.

Efuru, London: Heinemann, 1966

One is Enough, Enugu: Tana, 1981

Emecheta, Buchi.

Destination Biafra, London: Heinemann, 1982

Second Class Citizen, London: Fontana, 1977

The Bride Price, New York: George Braziller, 1976

The Joys of Motherhood, New York: George Braziller, 1979

The Slave Girl, New York: George Braziller, 1979

Our Sister Killjoy, London: Longman, 1979

SECONDARY SOURCES

William Walsh, Commonwealth Literature, Oxford: OUP, 1973

JOURNALS/ PERIODICALS/ARTICLES/ESSAYS/REPORTS

Emecheta Buchi, Feminism with a Small f: Criticism and Ideology ed. Kirstin Holst Peterson.

Charles, Ponnumburisarvan, Feminism and African Fiction: The Novels of Mariama Ba, Modern Fiction Studies, Vol. 34 No.3 Autumn, 1988

Ogunyemi, Chikwene O. Womanism: The Dynamics of Contemporary Black Female Novel in English. Signs: Journal of Woman in Culture and Society.

St. Peter, Christine. Changing Worlds: The Nigerian Novels of Buchi Emecheta. Atlantis. 11 (Fall 1985):

Article by Devvy Kidd, an Advisory Board Member for the Wallace Institute, Founder and Director of Project on Winning Economic Reforms.

Imperial Leather; Race, Gender, Sexuality in the Colonial Context, N.Y. Routledge, 1995.

South Africa: HIV-Prevention Programme Fails Rape Survivors
INTERVIEWS:

OTHER REFERENCES:

Khayyoom, S.A. The Neo-Anthropological Novels of Chinua Achebe

* * *