ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

With immense pleasure, I wish to express my gratitude to my guide Dr. (Mrs.) M.D. Baby, Professor and Head, School of Library and Information Science, Rajagiri College of Social Science, Kalamassery and University Librarian (Rtd.), CUSAT for her valuable guidance, encouragement and sustained interest bestowed on me on every stage of the dissertation.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. G. Devarajan, Professor and Head (Rtd.), Department of Library and Information Science, University of Kerala, for his immense help, valuable advice and inspiration throughout the study.

Many thanks are due to my colleagues of CUSAT and University of Kerala for their endless support and inspiration throughout the dissertation and especially during my data collection. Special thanks are due to Sri. P. K. Padma Kumar for his valuable inputs and suggestions which helped me a lot in the completion of the dissertation.

I remember with gratitude my friends Dr. Sudesh Kattumannil and Sri. Stephy Thomas for their technical help in the statistical analysis part of the dissertation.

Thanks are due to Smt. Usha, P Assistant Librarian Sel. Gr. (Rtd.), CUSAT for her help in the successful completion of the dissertation.

Above all I thank God for showing blessing upon me in completing the dissertation successfully.

Finally, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my family members who have been my source of strength and support for my work.
