ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The completion of this thesis would have been impossible without the intellectual support of several people. First and foremost, I am very grateful to Dr. Ghodke Sharad Tukaram, my supervisor, the Head of the Department of Politics, Garware College, for this long and constant guidance.

He spent his valuable time reading and commenting on this work. Dr. Ghodke’s support, encouragement, critical comments, and his unfailing kindness made this thesis possible. His support and patience need to be highly appreciated.

Equally important for the completion of this work is the help of Mrs Sarala Kurup Jagan Indeed, I shall ever remain indebted to her for her valuable cooperation editing and assistance, which guided me a lot throughout this long research project.

My deepest gratitude also goes to the faculty members of the Department of Politics & Public Administration, University of Pune, for their support and encouragement.

Additionally, I am indebted to the public and private libraries of Tehran for providing relevant material for the research. They are National Library and Archives Organization of Iran (NLAI), Central library of Planning & Administration Organization, Central library of Foreign Ministry’s General Office of Historical Documents for Diplomacy, Central library of Cultural Studies & Social Sciences. Several other libraries of Pune University such as the library of Politics & Public Administration Department, Jayakar library.

The primary sources data was sourced from original document such as declarations, monographs, book-lets mainly in Persian and original documents in the form of statements. I am also deeply indebted for the valuable contributions of high ranking official’s free trade zone chiefs and key figures that I interviewed.

The secondary sources for this research come from, published and unpublished academic and nonacademic material like: journals, books, internationally recognized periodicals and newspapers. By coordinating data from all this above mentioned sources, this work became possible.
There are several others whose support and timely guidance helped the completion of this research. Their help need to be acknowledged whole heartedly too by me.

So, thank you, one and all!
