ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This effort of mine would not have become a reality if people around me had not extended a helping hand and the blessing of God and my mother. I am thankful to all of them. I am grateful to God for all his blessings. I pray my mother for this accomplishment.

I am grateful to my Professor & Head, Department of Law and guide Dr. N Balu for offering me all help and valuable guidance all the time when I approached him on the subject. It is he, who guided me to New Delhi to opening up my research work, which enable me to meet many eminent people in this subject and interact with them. This was an immense help to work on this thesis. This gave me good confidence to approach the subject fearlessly.

I am grateful to Mr. N Manohar, Senior Lecturer for being supportive and helpful when I was pursuing my research work in the department by offering valuable suggestion and research material.

I am thankful to Dr. David Ambrose, Lecturer for being supportive and helpful when I was pursuing my research work in the department.

I am thankful to my partners Mr. K. J. Rebello and Mr. R.Santhana Krishnan, Advocates and Partners of M/s Suri & Co., Chartered Accountants who were kind enough to permit me to do this research work amidst my regular work.
I humbly thank Mrs and Mr Dr. N. R. Subbaram, Advocate & Consultant on IRPs and Controller of Patent, Design & Trade Mark (Retd), Director Centre for Science and Industrial Research for his blessings and showering love and affection towards me. I have no words to express my sincere thanks and good gesture to him for the encouragement and materials provided by him for doing this thesis and understand the whole subject.

My sincere thanks to Mr T K Viswanathan, Secretary, Dept of Law for the courtesy and gesture shown to me when I meet him at New Delhi.

My sincere thanks to Mr. V.R. Panchamuki, Director Research and Information System for the Non Aligned and other Developing Countries. Who discussed the subject in an analytical way and suggest the govt stand and the impact on India.

My sincere thanks to Pro. Rao, Secretary, Rajiv Gandhi Institute for Contemporary Studies who was kind enough to use the Library.

My sincere thanks to Mr. B.K. Keayla, Centre for Study of Global Trade System and Development who enlightened me the impact of TRIPs on Pharmaceutical Industry in India and cost of medicine etc.

My sincere thanks to Mr. S. Gopalaratnam, Senior Advocate, Mr. A. R. Janakan, Mr. M. S. Rajasekhar, Mr. V. S. Jayakumay and Mr. K. V. Ananthakrishnan Advocates who were kind and helpful to me in collecting materials and discussing the matters.
Though a close friend of mine, I would like to place on record the sincere help, lead and encouragement given by Dr. Krishna Prabhu P while he was in Chennai or at New Delhi to pursue and complete this thesis.

I would like to place on record my sincere thanks for the love and affection shown by Mrs. Padma Subburam while I was with her husband for discussing the subject.

I must thank Mr. Muthiah, New Delhi, Mr. Natarajan Joint Registrar, Supreme Court and Mr. N. Sundararaman, Suri & Co., Coonoor who were kind enough to provide all assistance in the beginning and completing of my thesis work in their respective places.

I am thankful to Mr D Premkumar and the staff members in University for helping me in carrying out the administrative formalities for my Ph.D course in the University of Madras.

I am thankful to the Management and Staff of Company Law Institute of India who were kind enough to help me in providing materials and bringing out my research work in printed form in a neat and pleasant manner.

I am thankful to my wife and children, parents and family members for the kind cooperation extend to me for successful accomplishment of this thesis.

R. MEENAKSHISUNDARAM.