Acknowledgements

This Thesis has been completed under the inspiration and guidance of Dr. B. N. Waphare, Professor, Department of Mathematics, University of Pune, Pune. With a profound sense of gratitude, I humbly thank Dr. Waphare. His guidance, motivation, enthusiasm and constant support encouraged me throughout this work. Words cannot express my real, deep and sincere gratitude to him.

A warm and heartfelt thanks to Dr. Vinayak Joshi for giving his valuable suggestions whenever required at different stages of my research work. He was not my official guide but he was taking care of me as his own student. Without his continual support and guidance, I would have not been able to complete this research work.

My sincere gratitude is reserved for Professor S. A. Katre, Head of Department of Mathematics, University of Pune for his invaluable insights and suggestions.

I am very thankful to teaching faculty of Department of Mathematics, University of Pune; Professor T. T. Raghunathan, Professor V. S. Kharat, Professor M. M. Shikare, Professor S. V. Kanetkar, Dr. H.
Bhate, Dr. V. S. Gejji, Dr. S. D. Kendre, Dr. Y. Borse, Dr. S. B. Dhotre, Dr. G. Kadu, Mr. S. B. Ballal, Mr. S. C. Patekar, Mrs. S. A. Kandekar.

I am very thankful to Mr. Avinash Patil and Mrs. Anagha Khiste for giving valuable suggestions and precise directives at certain stages.

During the period of my research work, I got support of my friends, Dr. Savita Deshpande, Dr. Prakash Deshpande, Mr. A. Bhavale, Mr. N. D. Mundlik and Mrs. S. P. Kavishwar. I thank them.

I would like to thank my family without their support this work would have not been completed. In particular, my lovely wife not only shown patience but took care of my parents in all respects in their old age during my absence through these long years. I will not forget her help through out my life.
