BIBLIOGRAPHY

Books

Article from website
52. “Fundamental Rights in India” www.wikipedia, accessed on
54. “Fundamental Rights” www.businessdictionary.com, accessed on
56. “History of Rising RTI in India” www.google.com, accessed on
57. “MAHARASHTRA RIGHT TO INFORMATION RULES 2005” www.sic.maharashtra.gov.in, accessed on
58. “Right to Information Act”, http://www.nic.in/rrtd, accessed on

70. Dhawan H (2010), the article entitled “Indians abroad seek access to RTI Act, launch signature campaign” The Times of India.

71. Divya A J, “Human Right” accessed on website

82. Jamal A (2010), “After repeated RTI pleas, AMC refuses to divulge details”
   Times of India.
83. Joshi H V (2007), “Right to information and its impact on administration”, Paper published in proceedings of National Conference 2\textsuperscript{nd} & 3\textsuperscript{rd} Feb 2007 at GACC OF Sangli.
   Information in Sangli District”.
   of India.
   paper, please?” India Together.
87. Karki M, “Right to Information and Role of Libraries and Information System in Nepal” accessed on website
89. Kejriwal A (2006), “RTI: The enormous power with the people” India Together.
   Together.
   Transformation – Study of Practical Problems”, Paper published in proceedings of National Conference 2\textsuperscript{nd} & 3\textsuperscript{rd} Feb 2007 at GACC OF Sangli.
   Access to government Record” Karmayog.
   accessed on.
95. Mani D, “Right to Information Act- An Overview” accessed on website
96. Monte D D (2009), ”The Bureaucracy: The Righting the RTI”, India Together.
   transformation”, Paper published in proceedings of National Conference 2\textsuperscript{nd} &
   3\textsuperscript{rd} Feb 2007 at GACC OF Sangli.
   accessed on.

