1. Attempts to validate the results of CSF 17 KDa antigen, antibody assays are required from centres which see large numbers of children with tuberculous meningitis.

2. The role of Immune complexes and the variation in Immune complex formation in the CSF of children with tuberculous meningitis need further studies.