Acknowledgements

I would like to thank all people who have helped and inspired me during my doctoral study.

I treat it as my cherished privilege to respectfully thank Prof. Daya Nand Garg, Department of Laws, Panjab University and Dr. Manu Sharma, University Institute of Applied Management Studies, Panjab University, Chandigarh under whose expert guidance and supervision, the present study has been carried out. They have shown indefatigable zeal and enthusiasm through his valuable, fruitful and enlightening discussions. They spared no pains to guide my work even at the cost of his personal comforts, precious time and heavy official engagement.

I am enormously thankful to Prof. Nishtha Jaswal, Chairperson, Department of Laws, Punjab University, Chandigarh for her cooperation, encouragement and assistance which was very much fruitful for me in the completion of my research work.

I would also like to extend my warm gratitude towards my wife, Mrs. Ramandeep, for her support and constant pushing which played a major role in the successful completion of this thesis. Mere words of acknowledgement will never be enough to express the deep sense of regards and indebtedness toward my father Sh. Chaman Lal Khera and my mother Smt. Kamlesh Khera for their unflagging love and support throughout my life, this thesis is simply impossible without them. I shall be failing in my duties if I do not thank to my sister Ranjana Khera Heer, my brother Raman Khera and my sister-in-law Rittu for their moral support during the study.

I wish to put on record my thanks to the staff of Library of Punjab University, Chandigarh for their cooperation that helped me to complete my work neatly and promptly.

Last, but not the least thanks to God for my life through all tests in the past years. You have made my life bountiful. May your name be exalted, honoured and glorified.
