ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This dissertation was made possible by the enthusiastic support, suggestions, encouragement, and guidance of many individuals. I am greatly indebted to my research guide, Dr. M.S. Subhas, for his creative guidance, excellent supervision, expert advice and unfailing interest at different stages of my research work. He consistently challenged me to do my best to the final product of this work. I thank him for being my academic friend, and serene advisor. I am happy to place on record my debt of gratitude to Dr. M.S. Subhas and his family members.

I express my debt of gratitude to the present Vice-Chancellor of Karnataka University Prof. H.B. Walikar and his wife Smt. Anusuya Walikar for the encouragement, moral support and unstinted co-operation in completing this work.

I was fortunate enough to get periodical advice and guidance from Dr. S.S. Hugar, Professor, Department of Commerce, Karnataka University, Dharwad. I am deeply beholder to him and his family and they deserve special recognition.

During the course of my research work, I received the spontaneous co-operation, assistance and help from my beloved teachers Dr. T.N. Shreedhar, Professor, Department of Business Administration, Mangalore University, Mangalore, Dr. T. Mallikarjunappa, Professor, Department of Business Administration, Mangalore University, Mangalore, and Dr. Mustiary Begum, Professor, Department of Business Administration, Mangalore University, Mangalore in various matters which are worth to remember and for which I am grateful to them.

I deeply acknowledge with pleasure, the help received by me from the Finance Officer and other officials of Karnataka University, Dharwad.
I sincerely acknowledge the moral support and inspiration provided by Dr. S. Jayanna, Professor, Department of Commerce and Business Administration, Vijayanagara Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Bellary, Dr. Ramesh Agadi, Professor, Department of Business Administration, Gulbarga University, Gulbarga, Dr. Rajnalkar Laxman, Professor, Department of Commerce, Gulbarga University, Gulbarga, Dr. V. Murugaiah, Professor, Department of Business Administration, Davangere University, Davangere, Dr. B. Bakkappa, Professor, Department of Business Administration, Davangere University, Davangere, Dr. B. Suresh, Professor, Department of Commerce, University of Mysore. I owe a deep sense of gratitude to them.

Among notable individuals who let me draw upon their talents generously are Dr. M. Vishwanath, Assistant Professor, University College of Law, Karnatak University, Dharwad and his family, Prof. Makhsud Javali, Professor in Political Science, Anjuman College, Dharwad and his family,
Dr. R.L. Hyderabad, Professor, Department of Commerce, Karnatak University, Dharwad and his family, Dr. C.G. Hussain Khan, Professor, Department of Anthropology and Dr. S.T. Bagalkoti, Professor, Department of Economics, Karnatak University, Dharwad and his family. I acknowledge my immense gratitude to them in various matters which are worth to remember.

I have indeed no words to express my gratitude to my beloved parents Late Sri. Venka Naik and Smt. Seetha, who are my perennial and sole source of inspiration.

I express my sense of gratitude to my mother-in-law, Smt. Saraswathamma and my brother-in-law, Sri. Ganesh H.B., his wife Smt. Susheela, their children Mr. Sujeeth and Ms. Sadvithi for their encouragement and help during my research work. I also thank my friend Mr. Prakash S. Palekar and his wife Smt. Suneeta Palekar for their encouragement.

I wish to express my thanks to Dr. Ashok H. Chachadi, Professor, Kousali Institute of Management Studies, Karnatak University, Dharwad, who helped me in this study from the very beginning. The discussions I had with him and the suggestions that he gave have helped me in this research. I have also benefited from discussion and debates with my colleagues Dr. N. Maruthi Rao, Assistant Professor and Dr. N. Ramanjaneyalu, Assistant Professor, in the department. I thank Sri. F.Y. Sunagar, Office Superintendent, in the department. I thank all Teaching Assistant’s, namely, Miss. Vidya Hulkund, Miss. Shilpa Sunagar, Miss. Vanishree J. and Miss. Afreen. I am grateful to the Research Scholars especially Mr. Vijayakumar A.N. and Mr. Halaswamy D. in the department. I am also thankful to all non-teaching staff members in the Institute especially Mr. Navendra Naik, Miss. Vanita, Miss. Puspa, Mr. Irappa, Mr. Hiremath and Miss. Jayashree. My special thanks are due to all my dear students.

I had fruitful discussion with many experts on higher education. They provided a lot of research materials and gave me an insight into the problems of financing higher education. These discussions helped me immensely in understanding not only the problems of financing higher education but also its possible solutions and management.

The person whom I wanted to thank first is being mentioned last. I deeply appreciate the inspirations and the ideal conditions provided at home by my wife Smt. Mangalagowri, whose constant help and understanding made this work possible. I owe special thanks to my daughter Miss. Sneha and son Mr. Spandan. I thank them very warmly. I also thank all my sisters, brother-in-laws and brother.

Finally, no listing of acknowledgement would be complete without emphasizing the contributions of my friends who morally supported me. I thank all those who have helped me directly or indirectly during my research work.

I am also thankful to Basavanna Graphics (Sri. Vinay Kumar Ganjigatti) of Dharwad for his timely help in completion of this work.
