ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The completion of any research work is inconceivable without the erudite guidance of a mentor. I, therefore thank deeply and most sincerely to reverend Prof. Dr. V.K. Bansal, Chairman, Department of Laws, Panjab University, Chandigarh, who in spite of his preoccupations and busy schedule always took unfailing interest, gave encouragement, timely guidance, wise and sound consultation both at the stage of planning and arrangement of the scheme of the research work as well as at the stage of final presentation.

My sincere thanks are also due to Dr. Bal Krishna, Dr. (Ms.) Kulwant Gill, Dr. D.N. Jauhar, Dr. P.S. Jaswal and Dr. J.K. Chauhan, Professors, Department of Laws, who helped and encouraged me to undertake the present research work. I thank Dr. M.S. Bains, Dr. Vijay Nagpal, Dr. (Mrs.) Ranbir Kaur, Dr. (Mrs.) Shalini Marwaha, Dr. Daya Nand Garg, Readers and Dr. (Mrs.) Sangit Bhalla, Dr. (Mrs.) Paramjit Kaur, Lecturers, Department of Laws who had been providing me with requisite material and guidance to complete my work. I would also like to thank other members of the teaching fraternity for their courteous and helpful attitude.

I owe my deep regards to Dr. M.R. Agarwal, Professor and Dr. (Mrs.) Upinder Sawhney, Reader, Department of Economics, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for providing me valuable insight into the economic aspects of my research topic, so as to logically conclude the research work.

I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to Ms. Reena Singh and S. Sawarn Singh, Sr. Research Analysts, Population
Research Centre, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for providing me guidance regarding the proper methodology for undertaking empirical survey and for compilation of data thereof.

Access to literature always poses a problem. In this regard, I would like to thank the library staff of the Department of Laws, Department of Economics, Department of Commerce, A.C. Joshi Library, Panjab University, Chandigarh, Indian Law Institute New Delhi.

My sincere thanks are also due to S. Gurnam Singh, Mr. R.R. Garg, Ms. Neha and Ms. Mamata, who helped me for collecting the requisite research data. Special thanks are due for Mr. Rajesh Verma for the great care and patience, he bestowed upon typing the script. I must thank my friends and well-wishers who prompted me to carry out my academic pursuits well.

I am indebted to my parents, parents-in-law and family members for their persistent encouragement and co-operation in completing this work. I am thankful to Mrs. Sheela Goel, who read many portions of this work and pointed out many typographical mistakes and helped to rectify them. I express my special feelings for my husband, Mr. Govind Kumar Goel, who always helped me in the moments of stress and anxiety. All credit for this research work goes to him as he always encouraged and inspired me. For my son Ankit and daughter Tanvi, I have hardly any words to express my gratitude, for I poached on the time and comforts which were exclusively theirs, and who always tried to adjust and adapt themselves to my routine helping me a lot to complete my work.
