ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I have the privilege to express my deep sense of gratitude to our Dean, Shri Justice H.R. Sodhi (Retd.) under whose expert supervision and guidance the present study has been completed. Notwithstanding his multidimensional involvements, may be as a Senator, Panjab University, Chandigarh or former Presiding Officer, Industrial Tribunal, Panjab and Central Government, Chairman COFECOSA and MISA Boards, Appellate Authority under Water Pollution Act, Chairman, NSA Advisory Board, Union Territory, Chandigarh and presently of NSA Board, Panjab, generously, he devoted his valuable time in giving his invaluable suggestions at every stage of this work.

I am grateful to Dr. Virendra Kumar, LL.M., J.S.D. (Toronto), Professor and Chairman, Department of Laws, Panjab University Chandigarh, who, not only initially inspired me to undertake the present study but also unhesitatingly proffered his constructive criticism while the work was in progress.

To the officers and personnel of E.S.I. Corporation, Indian Labour Bureau, Regional Offices of I.L.O. and ISSA, Indian Law Institute, Shram and Shakti Bhawan, Govt. of India, various foreign Embassies including the High Commissions of U.K. and Australia and Embassies of W. Germany and Soviet Russia, I am much obliged for their help in placing invaluable literature free of cost at my disposal.

Gratefully, I acknowledge my indebtedness to Shri V. P. Kashyap, Additional Director (Ag. Engineering), Haryana, Ag. Department, Shri R. S. Brar, Joint Director (Ag.)
Implements and Biogas), Panjab Ag. Department, who supplied the statistics and their exposition which proved vital for my functional study, Shri H.S. Shekhon, I.P.S., Inspector General (Vigilence), Panjab, Shri V.K. Kapoor, I.P.S., Haryana Police, Lt.Col.K.. Singh, Deputy Judge Advocate General, II Corps, H.S. Chaudimandir Cantoment deserve to be mentioned for their kind help and hospitality extended to me during field survey at different places in the region. I.S.I. doctors and others also deserve a mention for their kind co-operation in unfolding the miseries of the victims of employment injuries. To the poor village farm-workers, whose agony is the core of the present functional study, my sincere indebtedness is unexpressable.

To my own colleagues and dear friends, Dr.Y.K. Tewari, Shri M.L.Puri and Shri J.K. Chaubey, I am extremely beholden because it is they, who have given me affectionate promptings, which I consider invaluable and necessary for pursuing any meaningful work.

Finally, for my understanding wife and loving children, I have hardly any words to express my feelings of indebtedness because I treaded on the time and comforts which were exclusively theirs.

(VEER SINGH)
LL.M.,
Reader, Department of Laws, Panjab University, Chandigarh