Acknowledgements

The completion of thesis work needs constant supervision and constrictive guidance in manifold ways. It gives me immense pleasure to express my sincere gratitude to my esteemed guides Prof. (Dr.) R.S. Grewal, Ex-Director University Institute of Legal Studies, Panjab University Chandigarh and Prof. (Dr.) Shalini Marwaha, Professor Department of Laws, Panjab University, Chandigarh, for their guidance, constant encouragement, support and keen interest to make this study possible and meaningful.

My profound thanks are due to Dr. Devinder Singh, Associate Professor, Department of Laws, Panjab University, Chandigarh, Dr. Pushpinder Kaur Gill, Assistant Professor in Law, University Institute of Legal Studies, Panjab University, Chandigarh, Dr. Navneet Kaur Arora, Assistant Professor in Sociology, University Institute of Legal Studies, Panjab University, Chandigarh, Sh. Rakesh Mohindra, Assistant Librarian, Department of Laws, Panjab University, Chandigarh and Mrs. Anita Malik, Data Entry Operator, University Institute of Legal Studies, Panjab University, Chandigarh for their kind cooperation in the completion of this study.

I express sincere thanks to many employees of Chandigarh Police Department for the necessary assistance, expert guidance and help in the present research by way of field experience and also by making the data for the present study available.

I am indebted to Ram Sumer Maurya (Ex-Councilor, Chandigarh Municipal Corporation from Colony No 5), Sh. Tarsem Kumar Garge, Channder Mann, Shamam Begam, and other residents of Slum Colony No 5, Sector 51, Chandigarh for their cooperation, help to carry out field work in Slum Colony No 5, Sector 51, Chandigarh and providing authentic information. They gave me full cooperation to successfully conduct the empirical study. Their help was very important for me at that time because initially slum dwellers were not ready to talk to me on the issues of my research. But with the help of these people a relation of faith was developed with other slum dwellers of Slum Colony No 5 and empirical study was made possible.
Acknowledgements

I acknowledge the support of several officials from the various Government Departments in UT Chandigarh, who spared their valuable time, expressing their views and opinions and rendered all help to the research. Special thanks are due to the Directorate of Census Operations, Chandigarh, Estate Office, Chandigarh and Office of Municipal Corporation Chandigarh.

I also express my sincere thanks to the people in general, software professionals, advocates, social workers and some NGO’s employees for their help to carry out the real picture through this study.

I appreciate the cooperation extended by the library staff and librarians of Department of Laws, Department of Sociology, Department of Women Studies, Department of Geography, Department of VRS, A.C. Joshi Library, Panjab University, Chandigarh, Central State Library, Chandigarh, Mahatma Gandhi State Institute of Public Administration, Chandigarh, Police Headquarter Chandigarh, Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi, Indian Society of International Law, Delhi, Indian Institute of Law, Delhi, Nehru Memorial Library, Indian Council of World Affairs (Sapra House), Delhi, Central Library of Delhi University etc. for providing the relevant material required for this research work.

Last but not the least, my deep sense of appreciation to my parents for their love, support and encouragement throughout my academic carrier especially for the successful completion of the present research. My heartiest thanks to my wife Jawsinder Kaur and son Veerajy, without whose constant support and encouragement throughout my research work, the present study could not have been possible. Special thanks to my dear sisters and brother for their unending love and concern.

Thanks to God for giving me the strength and wisdom to complete this project.

Ajay Rangila