Dedicated to the little children who in sickness and health contributed the materials necessary for making this study possible